CAR GOES OFF ROAD

Assertedly failing to see a curve, a driver of a car registered to Max Padilla, 7345 Rivera, went off the road and Cravella ave., Hollywood Riviera, went off the road and into the field for 250 feet, then crashed into a Santa Fe loading ramp Sunday, according to police.

Lomita Church to Hold Giant Carnival

Mothers (and dads) of the Lomita Presbyterian Church's Mothers' Club announced plans are complete for their Carnival and Bar-B-Que dinner set for this coming Saturday afternoon and evening, July 23, at the Church, 245th and Woodward Streets in Lomita.

Purpose of the carnival is to raise funds for a new church, as increased membership now makes the old church inadequate, according to Mrs. J. Zimmerman, press chairman.

Many Booths
In charge of booths in the fun zone will be Mesdames Chas. Dickens, I. R. Buchan, Vernon Walker, Byron Flint, Harry Baillie, Wm. Edwards, Bruce Wilson John Whites, Ray Albert, Wade White, Lutte Armstrong, Edward Stambaugh, Martin Jones, Jean Edmond and Sue Phippen. Many of the fathers will be on board to assist in manning the booths.

Carnival rides for the small fry will be furnished by Tinkertown, Mrs. Zimmerman said. In one of the booths will be water pistols to be used to snuff out lighted candles; rifles which shoot ping pong balls at a clown's mouth; a live gold fish can be won at another booth. Darts can be thrown at balloons; rings at coke bottles and balls through a hoop. A hot dog and coke stand will be set up as well as a pop corn stand and a booth with fresh home baked goods for sale will provide the goodies to take home for Sunday dinner, the press chairman added.

Dimes Buried
A special attraction for boys and girls between 5 and 9 years will be the mountain of sand. At 4 p.m. they will be given the opportunity to scramble for ten dollars worth of silver dimes buried in the sand.

Adding that special touch to the carnival atmosphere will be music by a guitar band, a group Music Studio of Torrance, under the leadership of William Edwards. They will play from 2:30 until 4 p.m.

Dinner Menu
The Bar-B-Que dinner to be served from 4:30 until 7:30 p.m. includes barbecued beef, baked beans, green salad, rolls and sherbet for dessert.

Tickets can be obtained in advance or at the door. Committee serving includes Mesdames Joe Haslam, Harlan Huff, Harry Baillie, Eldon Durham, Erling Barum and Lewis Leonard.

Prizes Told
Merchandise including baskets of groceries, a hair styling and purchase certificate have been donated by local merchants as prizes at a drawing to be held on the carnival grounds at 8 p.m. Everyone attending the dinner or carnival will be given a ticket for the drawing. Zimmerman added.

Lutherans To Hold Vacation Bible School

Ascension Lutheran Church will hold its Vacation Bible School between August 1-5 and 8-12 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at 18002 Prairie avenue, church officials announced this week. Classes are arranged for children from age three through the eighth grade.

All children are invited to attend. Registration can be made every Sunday morning at 9:30 a.m. or at the time the sessions begin. Registration or other information may be obtained by calling Pastor Kjergaard at FRontier 9-5934, it was disclosed.

Each morning there will be a very short joint worship for all classes. After this the departments will meet separately for the discussion of Bible stories. Following this there will be time for handwork and singing.

Superintendents and helpers have a planned program. The entire Bible School will be divided into five departments each headed by a superintendent. In charge of the Nursery Department will be Mrs. Emma Eriewe; the Beginner Department, Mrs. Mildred Lee; the Primary Department, Mrs. Olga Schulke; the Junior Department, Mrs. Schuentz; and the Senior Department, Rev. Carlton Kjergaard.

Professional Course Open

The YWCA opened its 1955 School for Professional Workers at Lake Erie College, Painesville, Ohio, on June 30 with Mrs. Mary C. Michel, of the staff of the Harbor District YWCA among the 100 participants.

The school which will continue through July 28 is under the directorship of Dorothy I. Height of the Leadership Service staff of the National Board.

Participants
Participants include staff members who are assuming new responsibilities, experienced program directors moving into the role of executive directors and new program directors and assistants. Thirty-five states are represented among this year's students.

Professional workers' training under YWCA sponsorship is now in its 47th year. The YWCA at present has a professional staff of 2,891 of which 2,658 are in community associations, 112 in student associations, 16 on the national staff, and 104 in overseas jobs.

In addition there are more than 10,000 employed on the managerial, clerical and maintenance level.

In the United States, the need for new professional staff workers is estimated at about 800 yearly.

Salaries
Salaries in the association are considerably above national averages, ranging from $3200 for staff members with a minimum of experience up to $5,000 for experienced program director. Salaries of experienced executive directors go as high as $10,000.

The professional Workers School is designed to acquaint staff members with each other and to help them understand the YWCA, to participate in the association's world-wide fellowship and as professional workers, to share in the responsibility for recognizing the YWCA's objectives.

In addition to Miss Height, 12 other members of the National Board staff are serving as instructors and discussion leaders on the basic areas of the school's program: The YWCA—what it is and how it operates, and emphasis on religion, people, community, program, and job organization. Mrs. Michel will be back at work in the Harbor District on August 1.
